

Dr. Alan Wolfelt, a psychologist and grief counselor of international reputation, is Director of the Center for Loss and Life Transition in Fort Collins, Colorado. He is North America's leading authority on grief, mourning, complicated loss, and companioning the bereaved and broken-hearted. A prolific author and inspiring teacher, Dr. Wolfelt is a regular contributor to many journals and has written many helpful books, DVDs and brochures. He is committed to helping people mourn well so they can live well and love well.

"The capacity to love requires the necessity to mourn."

—Alan D. Wolfelt, Ph.D.

Understanding Your Grief

In the wilderness of grief, the touchstones are the trail markers. They are the signs that let you know you are on the right path. When you learn to identify and rely on the touchstones, you will find your way to hope and healing. This compassionate program will help all of us understand how loss influences our lives. You will learn to embrace the uniqueness of grief, reflect on feelings of loss, learn about the six essential needs that everyone experiences when someone dies and you will understand the difference between “reconciling” your grief and “resolving” your grief.

Consider inviting friends who will benefit from this rare, free opportunity in Port Huron to hear Dr. Wolfelt share what he has learned over four decades of companioning thousands of people in grief. Plan to join us for a very special and uplifting evening.

ONE-DAY SEMINAR FOR PROFESSIONALS

Wednesday, October 16, 2024
9 am - 4 pm at Alexanders Banquet Facility, Marysville
$35 fee - Reservations required

When Grief is Complicated

This is a professional workshop for nurses, hospice workers, social workers, counselors, clergy, chaplains, lay ministers and anyone caring for the bereaved. Caregivers will explore the critically important topic of “Complicated” grief. Dr. Alan Wolfelt will present his model for understanding, identifying and companioning grievers lost in the wilderness of grief. The workshop content will include exploring the origins of complicated grief, risk factors, common symptoms, sub-categories of complicated grief and it will provide specific guidance on caring for complicated grievers.
